

17th October 2008

Latest News Stories

- > Planning reforms hang in the balance as Parliament weighs up the benefits
- > M&S enters the UK energy supply market in a joint offering with SSE
- > North European utility Vattenfall adds to its stake in the UK electricity market
- > Welsh Water allocates £100m to fight cryptosporidium in north Wales
- > The UK should have plenty of generation capacity, whatever the weather
- > Gas shippers angry at Ofgem's threat to toughen up licences after capacity auction flops
- > Water companies must think about catchments, says Natural England

More >>

Partner news

- > NJUG invites entries for its first awards for good practice in the streetworks industry

More >>

Managing Consumer Debt Conference

Last chance to book for Utility Week's annual conference on managing consumer debt.

The meeting will take place on 23 October in London. Among the speakers: Lord Whitty will introduce Consumer Focus, the new consumer organisation that will take on Energywatch's role. For full details and to book, Visit our website.

More >>

http://epidm.edgesuite.net/RBI/utilities/UTNEW/161008/UTNEW\_161008.html